Munich-based freelance event operations manager and interpreter. Since 2019, has run and supported 15+ on-site projects across Europe — trade fairs, corporate workshops, public-sector study tours and concerts. Owns projects end to end, from planning and local staffing to on-site operations and wrap-up, typically leading a team of 5–8 promoters and 2 Korean staff. Works with a vetted local staff network and a plan B for every site; most work comes from repeat clients. Clients include Samsung, LG, Kia, HD Hyundai, KOTRA and many Korean public institutions. Korean · German · English interpreting in technical and industrial settings.

KEY PROJECTS — PLANNING · OPERATIONS

Kia Designers' Europe Workshop 06/2024 – 11/2024
Local Manager (6 months)
- Involved from the client tender — researched the industry's vintage trend and the group's next design direction, and personally recruited renowned retired car designer Joji Nagashima (ex-BMW) as the speaker
- Planned and ran a 6-day tour programme across 3 countries for 11 junior designers — scheduling · site visits · vehicles · staffing · local coordination
- Re-engaged for the next European edition (2026); declined due to studies

Samsung Automotive Roadshow 2026 (3 German OEM Sites) 02/2026 – 09/2026
Local Manager
- Pre-event planning — operations plan · VIP tour scenario design · local coordination
- Local staffing — staff selection · joint promoter recruitment with the client
- Took charge of the indoor part on site (stage build and rehearsal) when the client was short of manager-level staff; re-planned staff flows, timetable and VIP tour order (5 participating affiliates)
